

Chapel Prepares for 'Devil's Advocate' After Successful 'Exit the Body' Run Here

The final curtains closed on "Exit the Body" last weekend before a capacity audience, ending a triumphant run at Chapel Theatre in Torrance.

Last Sunday, cast and crew of the hit show were at the theatre taking out the old, to make way for the new sets and furnishings of the next production to be shown at Chapel Theatre, 4164 Pacific Coast Highway, on Smith Bros. Fish Shanty property.

"The Devil's Advocate" by Dore Schary, a dramatization of the novel by Morris L. West will open March 28. A special preview showing will be held for the San Pedro American Red Cross Chapter, and then the play is scheduled for four weeks.

Chapel Theatre is fortunate to be able to bring this dramatic offering to South Bay playgoers as this is a highly restricted play and only certain areas are given permission by Samuel French, Inc. to present "The Devil's Advocate."

This is not a controversial play and has been accepted favorably by religious faiths involved in the story. Some of the most descriptive remarks made concerning this play by well known authors and critics are: "Both powerful and spiritual, utterly without peppermint piety... Has everything - mystery, suspense... Approaches beautiful mysterious recesses of the human heart... A unique cloak and dagger drama of the human soul."

This is a most difficult dramatic effort and, according to the director Gladys Manu of Wilmington, a tremendous challenge to each actor involved.

The cast includes Tom Lowry, Los Angeles, as Meredith; Malt Reese, Palos Verdes, Marotta; Maxine De-sean, Hollywood Riviera; Nina; Fred West, Playa Del Rey; Dr. Mever; Lyle Smith, Manhattan Beach; Nicholas Black; Jack Daly, Redondo Beach; Aurelio; Hargie True, Manhattan Beach; the Contessa De Sanctis; Rudi Medina, Redondo Beach; Father Anselmo; Noel Shire, Torrance; Paola; Ed Gangel, Manhattan Beach; Nerone; Dennis Morgan, Inglewood; Il Lupo; Jim Sena, Inglewood; Partisan; Connie Polack, Hermosa Beach; Senoro Martino; and Frieda Roth, of Lawndale, the Partisan's daughter.

Production crew consists of Adrienne Held, assistant to the director; Sam Manu, producer; Rudi Medina, stage manager; Steve Sands, technical director; electrician, Grover Palmer, George Bingham and Jon Matson, lighting and sound; props, Cadolyn Schroeder, Jo Ann Matson, and Carol Swartout; set dressing, Phyllis Palmer, with special scenic painting by artist John Vincent Mason.

Since there are six performances which have been advance sell-outs, it is suggested that reservations be made well in advance of the date desired. Reservations for any of the four weekends may be made by calling the box office, FR 2-9636. Admission prices are $1.50 Fridays and Sundays, $1.75 Saturdays. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m.

THE "12TH COUNTY"

During the 1950-1960 census, Torrance and the South Coast area had a larger numerical gain in population than all but 11 counties in the United States.
